Guidelines for the NANDA Foundation Grant submission 2023

Required elements for the submission include (8 pages maximum; PDF document):

1. Title of the proposal
2. Authors and affiliations (universities, or organizations where author(s) work; city, country)
3. Short bio of the research team involved in the project that reflect capability/ability to accomplish the proposed research
4. Introduction to the research project
5. Literature review/synthesis
6. Problem statement and study framework
7. Research questions/hypothesis/aims
8. Methodology: sample (size, type, selection process); data collection; data analysis, etc.
9. Ethics/Human Subjects Approval
10. Research impact/significance: how will the results influence nursing language, nursing knowledge, education, practice, research, and/or policy
11. References (APA style)
12. Plan for Dissemination of Results
13. Project timeline (table or Gantt Chart format; projects with a duration of more than two years will not be reviewed)
14. Budget (table format) (please note the Foundation will not fund the following: tuition fees, fees for paid for open access publishing, regular computer office and computer equipment, travel expenses and conference fees. If in doubt, please ask us a question by email)

NOTE: Submitters should emphasize items 4 through 7. Proposals not meeting these Guidelines will not be reviewed.